The Plan for Pitt: Planning Framework

MISSION
- Offer superior educational programs
- Advance the frontiers of knowledge and creative endeavor
- Share expertise with private, community, and public partners

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES
In advancing our mission, we will rank among the finest universities in the world, emphasizing as Strategic Priorities:

- Consistently Deliver Excellence in Education
- Impact Through Pioneering Research
- Build Community Strength
- Extend Our Global Research
- Provide Top Value
- Secure an Adequate Resource Base

DRIVERS
As we strive for excellence and impact in advancing our mission and vision, we face profound challenges and opportunities in our region and the global landscape of higher education. These demand dynamic responses, presented here as drivers of foundational change.

- Partnering for Impact
  - We will facilitate internal collaboration to enrich the interdisciplinary of our academic endeavors & enhance operational efficiency & actively pursue engagements of private, public, government, & international partners on strategic initiatives.

- Harnessing Information
  - We will transform the scale & impact of our activities by harnessing information in pursuit of grand challenges. This will drive innovative approaches to research, student learning & development, community & alumni engagement, & operational excellence.

- Shaping Our Culture
  - Ours will be a culture in which faculty, staff, students, & alumni all strive for excellence. We will invest in the continuous development of our people & become more divers & interconnected, agile in our decision making, & engaged as a community. With resiliency, integrity, & determination, we will be entrepreneurial & innovative in achieving impactful results.

VALUES
With respect for each other and our rich tradition, the University of Pittsburgh embraces as core values:
- Excellence, Impact
- Integrity, Virtue
- Collaboration, Collegiality
- Diversity, Inclusion
- Entrepreneurship, Agility

The Plan for Pitt: Goals

These goals help put the strategic priorities for the Plan for Pitt into action!

1. Advance Educational Excellence
   We aspire to be a university that prepares students to lead lives of impact through a supportive environment, focused on a holistic and individualized approach to learning inside and outside the classroom.

2. Engage in Research of Impact
   We aspire to be a university that advances the frontiers of knowledge and makes a positive impact on the world through collaborative and multidisciplinary approaches to research that focus on areas of great societal need.

3. Strengthen Communities
   We aspire to be a university that strengthens our communities—from the Pitt community, to our region, and the world around us—by expanding engagements, supporting collaborations, and embracing a global perspective.

4. Build Foundational Strength
   We aspire to be a university that supports success through a foundation of strong internal culture, a robust capacity to partner, outstanding infrastructure, and effective operations.

5. Embrace Diversity and Inclusion
   We aspire to be a university community that embodies diversity and inclusion as core values that enrich learning, scholarship, and the communities we serve.
Shared Governance

The University has a wide range of organizations that participate in governance activities:

- University Senate
- Staff Council
- Student Governments
- Advisory groups and review committees

- Faculty in academic units determine curriculum, graduation requirements, approve the granting of degrees, etc. through the authority granted to them by the Board of Trustees.
Staff Governance: Staff Council

- Staff Council is a representative body of volunteer staff dedicated to improving the staff experience at Pitt.
- Staff Council is committed to representing the University of Pittsburgh staff through shared governance, professional development and community service.

- If you have questions, please contact your recruiter.
Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA)

FERPA is a federal law that pertains to the release of and access to students’ educational records maintained by an educational agency or institution or a party acting for or on behalf of the agency or institution.

Under FERPA, students have the right to:
• inspect and review their educational records;
• request to amend their educational records;
• have some control over the disclosure of information from their educational records.

Unless subject to an exception under 35 CFR § 99.31, the University must have written permission from the student in order to release any information in their educational records, including to parents.

Additional information can be found at:
http://familypolicy.ed.gov/faq-page/13#t60n65
The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") was enacted to protect the privacy and security of health-related personal information.

HIPAA requires institutions that store, transmit, and manage personal medical information to have control over the confidentiality, integrity and availability of this data.

The University has established guidelines for complying with HIPAA and has established specific computer security controls that must be enacted on any University computer system that stores, transmits, or manages HIPAA data.

For more information, please visit: http://www.pitt.edu/HIPAA/

The Case for Diversity

What is diversity?

The University uses the word diversity broadly to include race, gender, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, disability, and/or veteran status, etc.

Why does diversity matter?

- Students thrive at a higher rate in a diverse learning environment.
- Graduates exposed to diversity believe their degree to be more valuable.
- Diverse working groups are more productive, creative and innovative.
- Diversity strengthens communities in the workplace.
Diversity and Inclusion

“We welcome the diversity present among our students, faculty and staff…”
Chancellor Gallagher, December 2014

Diversity and inclusion is fundamental to the University’s success and a key component of the new strategic plan.

“We aspire to be a university that embodies diversity and inclusion as core values that enrich learning, scholarship and the communities we serve.”
Affinity Groups

Faculty and staff linked by a common purpose or interest and play a vital role in ensuring an inclusive environment, that they feel valued & included, and performing at a high level

Inclusion @ Pitt

The University is committed to ensuring that all members of the LGBTQIA+ community feel safe, respected and valued on our campus.

• The University has created gender transition guidelines to help foster an understanding of transgender issues in the workplace and guidance on how to provide a welcoming and supportive environment for individuals transitioning.

• The University is happy to accommodate the use of a preferred name throughout certain University systems and on certain documents as permitted by law.

• Faculty, staff and students are welcome to use restrooms that correspond to their gender identity. In addition, single-occupancy or unisex facilities may be found in many University facilities and may be used by all members of the University community.

Affirmative Action

What do we do?

• Coordinate the development and implementation of equal opportunity, nondiscrimination, and diversity policies, procedures, reports, and guidelines.

• Monitor hiring processes and results.

• Develop, deliver, and participate in a variety of educational sessions.

• Investigate and coordinate the handling of internal complaints:
  • Discrimination, bias incidents, harassment, and failure to accommodate.

• Consistent with our values and most importantly to better serve our community, we need to know who you are.
  • Please disclose your disability and/or veteran status.

Anti-Harassment Policy

The University promotes a respectful and inclusive work and academic environment and prohibits intentional physical, verbal, or electronic abuse or harassment.

The policy applies to all University faculty, staff, students, and/or individuals on University property.

To read the Anti-Harassment Policy, please visit: http://www.provost.pitt.edu/information-on/antiharassment_statement.html
Discrimination and Harassment

The University promotes a culture of inclusiveness. As a result, the University prohibits discrimination or harassment on the basis of:

Age, ancestry, color, disability, family status, gender identity and expression, genetic information, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and veteran status

Retaliation is prohibited: The University prohibits retaliation against any person who makes a claim of discrimination or harassment, or who participates in an investigation.
Sexual Misconduct and Title IX

Consistent with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the University is committed to maintaining an environment free from sex or gender-based discrimination.

Sex discrimination includes:

• Sexual misconduct
• Rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, sexual exploitation, sexual coercion, and any other form of non-consensual sexual activity
• Sexual harassment
• Domestic violence
• Dating violence
• Stalking
A Commitment to Preventing and Responding to Sexual Misconduct

“Our University is committed to actively fostering a culture that prevents sexual violence and protects the safety of our students, staff, and faculty.”

Chancellor Gallagher, February 2015

• The Role of the Responsible Employee: reporting misconduct
• If you experience discrimination, sexual misconduct, or harassment, please contact the Title IX office and/or the Pitt Police.

Office of Export Control Services (OEC)

The OEC provides best practices advice and hands-on assistance to the University for compliance with the U.S. Export Control laws and regulations aimed at protecting national security, economic interests, and foreign policies of the U.S.
Office of Export Control Services (OEC)

The OEC has developed and implemented procedures in the following areas:

• Procurement
  • Purchasing products that will be directly shipped to locations outside of the U.S., or are contracting for services to be performed at locations outside of the U.S.

• Shipments
  • International shipments of items, technology, and software are subject to numerous import and export obligations

• Travels
  • Staff and faculty are required to comply with the United States export regulations when traveling abroad

• Visitors
  • The University requires that the Pitt Research Community ensure that campus visitors are not listed on one of the Federal Restricted Parties lists.

For more information on procedures, please refer to the following website: http://export.pitt.edu/procedures
Travel registry

- Pitt has partnered with International SOS for trip registration and emergency services while abroad.

- Council of the Deans has adopted a policy that requires registration of international travel for all University students and staff, and strongly encourages registration for faculty.

- Registration increases the benefits of already existing coverage and services available.

AlertLine

1-866-858-4456
http://www.coi.pitt.edu/AlertLine.htm

• All University of Pittsburgh employees have access to AlertLine, a telephone line that makes it comfortable and convenient for employees to report irregular or troublesome workplace issues such as financial improprieties, human resources matters, research compliance concerns and other legal or regulatory matters.

• Most workplace issues can be best handled by bringing them to the attention of your supervisor, but the AlertLine is there as an additional resource, if this is not possible.

• Callers to the AlertLine are given the option to remain anonymous. AlertLine calls are answered by independent communications specialists who are not employees of the University of Pittsburgh.
  • These individuals record information that the callers provide and then turn the information over to the appropriate University of Pittsburgh entity.
