Date: Tuesday, June 6, 2017
Time: 9 – 11:00 a.m.
Location: 342 Craig Hall

Who Should Attend: All faculty and staff

The workplace is a common site of interpersonal conflict. Some conflict is a natural outgrowth of interpersonal differences; other conflict is a result of repeated behavior meant to intimidate, degrade or offend others. Workplace bullying creates feelings of defenselessness and robs individuals of their right to respect and dignity at work. This workshop will define bullying behavior, its causes and effects, and resources available to those who have experienced it.

International Services Development Track

The International Services Development Track (ISDT) is designed for departmental administrators, faculty, and research supervisors who work with the Office of International Services (OIS) to recruit, select, and retain international faculty, students, and staff. These workshops will provide an opportunity to learn about different cultures represented on campus, their needs, challenges, and the resources available to them. Basic legal and regulatory concepts, and Pitt-specific policies and procedures will be reviewed as well. The focus is on making immigration-related issues understandable and providing the basics to make informed administrative decisions, and creating a foundation for partnering efficiently and effectively with OIS.

The track consists of a Foundations workshop and three Professional Practice workshops, all listed below. The Foundations workshop should be taken prior to taking the Professional Practice workshops, with the exception of Intercultural Competency: Beyond the Basics, which can be taken at any time. Upon completion of the Foundations workshop, the Professional Practice workshops can be taken in any order and over a period of years.

PROTECTING CHILDREN

The University strives to provide a safe academic and work environment for all members of its community and guests. This is especially important with respect to the safety and welfare of children. Those who will have direct contact with children should be trained in the protection of children. A resource for receiving training for recognizing and reporting child abuse is through the following online program at reportabusepa.pitt.edu. The PA Department of Human Services in collaboration with the University’s School of Social Work, Pennsylvania Child Welfare Resource Center has developed this free, publically available training program. More information from the Department of Human Services on training requirements and services is available at keepkidssafe.pa.gov/training/index.htm

PURCHASING FUNDAMENTALS TRAINING (online)

Who should participate: Faculty and staff who are responsible for purchasing goods and/or services for their departments

This online course covers the basic buy-to-pay process which includes identifying a need to purchase products or services, communicating with potential suppliers, placing an order and/or writing a contract, handling discrepancies and paying vendors. Participants will gain an understanding of the various University purchasing methods and initiatives such as utilizing requisitions, purchase orders, the PantherExpress System, and the Channeled Spending Program. This course also addresses University purchasing policies and approval authorities as well as the responsibility of the department purchaser to follow University policies and procedures. Participants will learn how to lower the total cost of ownership for all University purchases and how to utilize the support services offered by the PantherExpress departments. This online course can be accessed at any time, and can be completed at the employee’s convenience. To register for this course, please contact Cathy Lewis, clewis@cfo.pitt.edu for login information.

Note: Completion of Purchasing Fundamentals Training satisfies the prerequisite to attend PRISM Purchasing and PantherExpress System training. Note: PantherExpress System Shoppers are exempt from this prerequisite.

STUDENT PRIVACY AND FERPA

Presenters: Jennifer Seng, Associate General Counsel
Office of General Counsel
Patricia Mathay, University Registrar

Date: Wednesday, June 14, 2017
Time: 9–10:30 a.m.
Location: 342 Craig Hall

Who Should Attend: All faculty and staff who handle, review, store, or disclose student records and all others interested in professional development in this area

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) was recently amended. FERPA is the law that the University and its employees must follow with regard to student records. This workshop will give participants an overview of student privacy laws, regulations, and University policies pertaining to the confidentiality of student records. Because failure to follow FERPA can result in federal censure, loss of federal funding from the U.S. Department of Education, and adverse reflection on one’s employment at the University, it is important information for all faculty and staff who handle student records. This session will help participants avoid the pitfalls of noncompliance and become the student records “go-to person” in their department. Upon completion of this session, attendees will know how and when FERPA applies at Pitt, what exceptions to disclosure of records exist, where to go for further information, and how University policy is applied to student records.
Leadership Essentials

The Leadership Essentials workshops are designed for supervisors and managers who want to maximize their leadership potential and effectiveness. The workshops combine knowledge and skill building to help participants learn the essentials of effective leadership and skills for building and maintaining a high-performing team, as well as key employment principles and policies and the role they play in managing day-to-day human resources issues for their departments.

Leadership programs are also available for individual departments. Please contact Organization Development at 412-624-8044 to discuss further.

Diane Chabal, Learning & Development Specialist
Organization Development

Date: Tuesday, May 16, 2017
Time: 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
Location: 342 Craig Hall

Who Should Attend: Individuals who directly manage or supervise the work of other staff

One of the supervisor’s most important responsibilities is to provide a framework that enables staff to develop their performance and achieve goals. This workshop provides supervisors with an overview of best practices and procedures for managing employee performance throughout the year. Topics include establishing performance expectations and goals, providing ongoing feedback, and conducting performance reviews. Participants will also learn about the performance management cycle, and become familiar with tips and techniques for maximizing staff performance potential.
The Respectful Workplace

Presenter: Jane Volk, Director
Keith Kapusta, Employee Relations Specialist
Employee and Labor Relations, Office of Human Resources

Date: Thursday, May 25, 2017
Time: 9–11 a.m.
Location: 342 Craig Hall

Who Should Attend: Individuals who directly manage or supervise the work of other staff

Everyone knows the importance of preventing discrimination and harassment in the workplace. The University of Pittsburgh policies and sound management practices dictate preventing all forms of disrespectful behavior that are harmful to others, have an adverse effect on morale, and undermine productivity. Participants will leave this workshop with a heightened sensitivity and awareness for identifying behaviors that are disrespectful and/or illegal. They will learn how to prevent such behaviors, how to respond when they arise, and how to foster an environment based on mutual respect.

Certificate In Organizational Leadership And Ethics (COLE)

The Certificate in Organizational Leadership and Ethics (COLE) is a series of eight workshops that are designed for supervisors and administrators who want to maximize their ability to have impact as ethical leaders within their unit/department or overall workplace. This workshop series combines knowledge, interactive discussion and skill-building exercises to help participants learn the essentials of ethical leadership. Participants will learn competencies that include skills for building and maintaining a responsible workplace, responsible use of power and authority, enhancing productive work team performance and developing talent through the use of tools such as mentoring.

COLE workshops can be taken in any sequence over a five-year period. Faculty and staff can take one or more of these workshops based on interest. To receive a certificate, individuals must complete six of the eight workshops over a maximum 5-year period. COLE consists of the following eight workshops offered on a rotating basis each fall and spring:

- Mentoring and Leading Others
- The Ethical Use of Power
- Solving Problems and Ethical Dilemmas
- Principles and Practices of Servant Leadership
- Leadership and Effective Talent Development
- Building Social Capital by Managing Relationships, Conflict and Incivility in the Workplace (formerly Managing Incivility and the Bystander Effect in the Workplace)
- The Changing American Workplace: Rights, Responsibilities, and Challenges
- Silence (Not Golden): Dissent and Consensus in the Workplace

Who Should Attend: Faculty and staff who are supervisors or administrators or those who have made the transition from technical or administrative positions into managerial career paths where effectively managing people is part of competency development and overall effectiveness.

Mentoring and Leading Others*

Presenter: Audrey Murrell, Associate Dean and Associate Professor of Business Administration, College of Business Administration

Date: Wednesday, April 12, 2017
Time: 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
Location: 531 Alumni Hall
Materials Fee: $30

This workshop combines knowledge, interactive discussion and skill-building exercises to help participants understand the “art” and the “science” of developing talent, the ethical use of rewards, recognition and incentives in the workplace, and how to lead people through change, transition and chaos.

Leadership and Effective Talent Development*

Presenter: Ron Magnuson, Clinical Associate Professor, Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business and College of Business Administration

Date: Wednesday, May 17, 2017
Time: 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
Location: 532 Alumni Hall
Materials Fee: $30

This workshop combines knowledge, interactive discussion and skill-building exercises to help participants understand the challenge for managers to take a constructive approach toward acts of incivility and conflict in the workplace. We will examine how acts of incivility can “spiral” into more serious incidents and we will consider how and why some individuals choose not to acknowledge, or respond in the face of, such behavior.

Leadership and Effective Talent Development*

Presenter: Ray Jones, Clinical Associate Professor of Business Administration, Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business and College of Business Administration

Date: Wednesday, June 14, 2017
Time: 1:00–4:00 p.m.
Location: 531 Alumni Hall
Materials Fee: $30

This workshop combines knowledge, interactive discussion and skill-building exercises to help participants understand the challenge for managers to take a constructive approach toward acts of incivility and conflict in the workplace. NEW! The Changing American Workplace: Rights, Responsibilities, and Challenges*

Presenter: Paul Klein, Clinical Associate Professor of Business Administration, Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business and College of Business Administration

Date: Wednesday, March 22, 2017
Time: 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
Location: 531 Alumni Hall
Materials Fee: $30

This workshop examines the evolving workplace, looking at both legal and ethical dimensions of the world of work. A problem/case-oriented apparoach is used to consider some of the most confounding challenges we face in the workplace today. Participants will explore legal requirements that define our rights and responsibilities and how to navigate the many moral dilemmas for which the law does not provide clear guidance; only the minimum standard of behavior for which it was intended.

*Please note that there is a materials fee for the COLE workshops. This fee will cover the cost of materials for each participant. Participation in these workshops requires the completion of the attached registration form including appropriate authorization for attendance and financial responsibility. Forms can only be submitted via fax or campus mail. Online registration cannot be used for COLE workshops. Also note that fees will not be refunded with a cancellation less than two weeks prior to the workshop.

The Certificate in Organizational Leadership and Ethics program is co-sponsored by the David Berg Center for Ethics and Leadership in conjunction with the Office of Human Resources.
Human Resources Administration Certificate Program

The HR Administration Certificate Program is a series of eight workshops designed for University of Pittsburgh supervisors to acquire the knowledge necessary to effectively administer the policies, procedures and guidelines relevant to human resources within their department. This program addresses the supervisor’s role and responsibilities in key areas such as recruiting, compensation, employee relations and various aspects of compliance. All workshops required to earn a certificate in this program will be offered on a rotating basis each fall and spring through the Faculty and Staff Development Program. Participants may take these workshops in any order. Certificate requirements include completion of all courses and satisfactory completion of a Knowledge Mastery Check. Participants are expected to track their own progress and report completion of required courses to Organization Development. Information, registration and participation instructions are available at hr.pitt.edu.

The HR Administration Certificate Program consists of the following eight workshops:

- Talent Acquisition: Understanding the Staff Hiring Process at Pitt—For Supervisors
- Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) for Supervisors
- Managing Staff Performance: Maximizing Your Staff’s Potential
- Managing Staff Performance: Addressing the Need for Improvement
