The Posner Center has been prepared for the proctoring program.

Each child will have their own work space with plenty of distance between them and the other children (see the spacing of the black mats on the tables).

Empty chairs will be used for backpacks, coats, etc. but will remain at the desks to ensure that the children remain at least 6’ apart.

Adjustable height tables have been purchased for the youngest participants in the Proctoring Program.