Your retirement journey starts here.

The Summer Retirement Readiness Series: Your Passport to the Next Chapter is a 10-part webinar series designed to guide Pitt employees through every aspect of planning for and transitioning into retirement. Each session takes a deeper dive into a specific topic, giving you the knowledge and tools you need to retire with confidence.

In Session #2, our subject matter experts will cover:

- Pitt Pre-65 retiree health coverage – eligibility requirements, and plan options
- Spousal/Domestic Partner or dependent – eligibility & coverage
- Coverage costs and budgeting – understanding premiums, deductibles, and out-of-pocket costs during the pre-Medicare gap
- Timing your retirement date – how your retirement date affects coverage eligibility, premium costs, and the transition to Medicare
- Transitioning to Medicare at 65 – what to do as you approach Medicare eligibility so there are no gaps in coverage

There will also be time at the end of the session for live Q&A.

This series is open to all Pitt employees.
